

Theodore Roosevelt's Statecraft The Cornerstone of American National Security

Become a Sponsor for the 2020 Theodore Roosevelt Association
Annual Meeting, October 23 – 24
Co-hosted by the National War College

Help make this historic meeting, co-hosted by the National War College at Ft. Leslie J. McNair in Washington, DC, a great success! In addition to the significant panels and presentations, the venue will include attendance by many of the future senior leaders of the US military who are students at the National War College. Visit the TRA website (www.theodoreroosevelt.org) to see the exciting details and agenda.

Please sponsor this event at the level most appropriate for you. For the first time, sponsorships include at least one Full Package Attendance for the Annual Meeting. More at higher levels. All sponsorships are greatly appreciated, and sponsors will be identified (if desired) in the event program, on the TRA website and in the Theodore Roosevelt Association Journal. Corporate/business/organization logos will be prominently displayed at the Gala Reception on Saturday evening at the National Museum of the United States Navy.

Important Note: The TRA and NWC recognize there will continue to be uncertainty with events scheduled for this Fall, even as late as October, due to the Coronavirus Pandemic and its aftermath. Planning has been done to adjust the Annual Meeting events as circumstances dictate. Those options run the gamut from executing the full agenda/plan for the Annual Meeting to an Annual Meeting held principally by teleconference, including General Mattis' speech and award ceremony. To be clear, there will be a TRA Annual Meeting Oct 23-24 with its scope determined as the date approaches. We are presently planning to execute the full agenda/plan. Donors and contributors, both corporate and individual, should know that at any point, if you request to have your donation returned, it will be returned with no questions asked.
